The Student Union Memorial Center (SUMC) is among the largest Unions in the country. The 405,000 sq. ft. student-friendly Union incorporates long-standing traditions and landmarks of the original Memorial Union and offers essential dining, retail, involvement, entertainment, and student services to the University community.

The SUMC allows for many formal and informal settings where students, faculty, staff and the community can interact. It is a place where ideas are born, communities are formed, and where student concerns and interests are shared and debated, making the Union a dynamic, living, memory-making campus experience.

You will find ethnic restaurants, a food court, a US Post Office Contract station, shaded terraces, lounges and sidewalk seating, the CatCard office, the Grand Ballroom, the UA BookStore complex, 23 meeting rooms, the Cellar (housing a computer lab, TV lounge, the Games Room and Cellar Bistro—all open late), the Career Services Center, the Kiva auditorium, ASUA (student government), movie theater, banking and copy services, the Center for Student Involvement & Leadership, the VETS center, a hair salon, two convenience stores, and many other programs and services for students.

The Arizona Student Unions provide a sense of community and “a home away from home” to tens of thousands of students. The mission of the Unions is to balance the diverse educational, recreational, cultural and social needs of University of Arizona students, community and visitors with its facilities, programs, and services.
