

Join One of Our Committees

The University Activities Board has 6 committees covering many diverse areas:

Arts

The Arts Committee coordinates both visual and performing arts events. Concerts, poetry nights, arts and craft fairs, photography contests, and dance nights are only a few of the fun activities the Arts Committee brings to the UA!

Friday Night Live

Friday Night Live (FNL) is responsible for planning large-scale events for students on Friday nights. Whatever you can think up, FNL can coordinate it. They have planned everything from casino nights, to concerts, to fashion shows.

Comedy Corner

Come be a part of the nation's longest running sketch and improv comedy troupe. Comedy Corner is in charge of putting on hilarious improv and sketch shows weekly in the Cellar Bistro.

Speakers Series

The Speakers Committee brings some of the most influential speakers to campus that students want to hear! Be a part of selecting who we bring to campus and coordinating programs to go along with the event. Our most recent speaker was Spike Lee.

Films

Like Movies? The Films Committee is responsible for bringing a variety of films related events to campus. Films coordinate the showings of blockbusters, cult classics, foreign films and more! They also host a variety of other events such as student film contests and TV watch parties!

Street Team

The Street Team is responsible for marketing UAB to the entire campus. They work with various forms of social media such as Facebook and Twitter to promote the organization. They are also in charge of our website and creating fun ways to get the word out to students on campus.

Wanna Get Involved?

The University Activities Board, or UAB for short, is a student run and led group that brings fun social and educational programs to the University of Arizona. We plan concerts, comedy shows, speakers, poets, films and more for the UA Community.

UAB is not just a fun social group. Our members learn many skills by being involved. Networking, time management, organization skills, public speaking, and marketing are only a few of the many skills our members learn through planning events.

Joining is easy! Just fill out the application in this brochure and turn it into the Center for Student Involvement and Leadership Office on the 4th floor of the SUMC. Our membership coordinator will contact you and get you placed on a committee!

We look forward to you joining our team!
